

Tips for Balancing LEARNING AND HOME LIFE

Consider your child's age group and needs

- If you have multiple age groups at home, the transition and needs for school will be different
- Talk with children about their expectations and how they are adjusting to being at home vs. school
- Look for ways your child can stay connected with their friends without spending time in person

